PATROL: Sutherlin Police DATE: 03/15/2017
LOCATION: 1000 S. Calapooia St. TIME: 1841
PERSON(S): (A) Smith, Ryan Patrick / 05-15-1978
CHARGE(S): Disorderly Conduct II / Warrant Arrest
DETAIL(S): Officer contacted Ryan Patrick Smith at the above listed location after attempting to conduct a stop due to the fact that he was riding his bicycle down the center of the lane of opposing traffic causing roughly four vehicles to slam on their brakes. Once Officer activated the overhead lights, Smith turned around and fled in the opposite direction. Officer then turned around and followed him until he ditched his bicycle on the sidewalk and ran off into an empty field. Officer yelled for him to stop numerous times and he continued to run. He eventually stopped and was taken into custody. Once in custody, Officer learned he had a felony warrant. During a search for weapons/means of escape, a syringe was located in Smith's pocket. It will be sent off to the lab for additional testing. Smith was transported and lodged at the Douglas County Jail.

PATROL: Sutherlin Police DATE: 03/16/2017
LOCATION: 2861 Tenmile Valley Rd. TIME: 2007
PERSON(S): (A) Girardet, Daniel Jerome / 08-21-1982
CHARGE(S): Telephonic Harassment
DETAIL(S): Victim informed me that Girardet had been repeatedly trying to contact the victim via telephone and Facebook even after he was asked to stop. He began leaving unusual messages on the victim's cell phone. Victim made numerous attempts to block Girardet's phone number and social media accounts, but he kept creating new aliases and re-contacting the victim. Officer contacted Girardet and informed him of possible telephonic harassment charges. The phone call did not go well, as he was not receptive to the request. He contacted the victim yet again, even after my phone call to him. Officers responded to his home in Tenmile and arrested him for telephonic harassment. He was transported and lodged at the Douglas County Jail
